

Project Name:

Williams C2+ Pipeline Project
Integrated Planning, Regulatory Management and Public Consultation

Project Location:	Fort MacMurray, Alberta, Canada to Redwater, Alberta, Canada
Client(s):	Williams Energy (Canada) Inc.
Date Completed:	Ongoing (2008-2009)
Project Budget:	$4,100,000
		Redwater Station, Redwater, Alberta, Canada

Project Summary:

IEL is undertaking Integrated Planning and Management for the proposed Williams C2+ Pipeline, a 400km, 16" High Vapour Pressure pipeline from Fort MacMurray, Alberta to Redwater, Alberta. This includes key Regulatory, Land, Environment and Public Consultation Management tasks.

Services Provided:

* Coordination and Management of Project Feasibility Study and Application including:

- Pipeline Route Selection and Survey Integration
- Integration of Engineering into Regulatory and Planning Processes
- Coordination and Management of Land
- Coordination and Management of C&R Planning Process
- Coordination and Management of Regulatory Process
- Coordination and Management Development Permit Applications
- Coordination and Management of Emergency Response Planning
- Coordination and Management Directive 056 Public Consultation
- Coordination and Management of First Nations Consultation
- Implementation of Consultation Tracking Process
- Completion of Directive 056 Application

Deliverables or Results: Project Deliverables to July 2008

- * Integration of Regulatory Process into Project Feasibility
- * Pipeline Route Selection and Refinement
- * Regulatory Tracking
- * Conservation and Reclamation – Task Development and Deployment
- * Project Consultation Tracking System Implemented
- * Open Houses for the Feasibility Study stage
- * Open Houses for the Directive 056 Notification stage

Reference:

Art Sundborg, Environment, Health, Safety and Regulatory, Williams Energy (Canada) Inc.
(403) 444-4514

